2nd Bandung International Conference on Medicinal Chemistry (ICMC 2017)

Institut Teknologi Bandung
Indonesia

5-6 October 2017

Introduction

Medicinal Chemistry is the gateway to drug discovery. Engineering molecules which distribute to, interact with and exert an influence over biological targets is beset with a bewildering array of challenges and opportunities. In this conference we will discuss medicinal chemistry strategies and successes together with emerging technologies for discovering leads, and will draw on expertise from an impressive line-up of globally renowned scientists from academia and industry.

On behalf of the Organizing and Scientific Committees, we are pleased to extend an invitation to all interested parties to attend the 2nd Bandung International Conference on Medicinal Chemistry, which will be held in Bandung, Indonesia on October 5-6, 2017. This Conference is a joint meeting co-organized by School of Pharmacy-Bandung Institute of Technology and Indonesian Medicinal Chemist Association.

A very warm welcome awaits you in Bandung known as Paris van Java, in October 2017. We hope that you will come and that your visit will be both scientifically productive and personally enjoyable.

Scientific Program

The conference program is divided into several sessions covering important areas of medicinal chemistry, pharmaceutical biology, and phytochemistry, both those which are well established and those which are newly emerging. Eminent scientists and workers in the field are being invited to present plenary and session lectures. The participants will also play prominent roles-large sections of the lecture program being reserved for your submitted contributions, and the posters will be a major focal point of the conference. Posters will be highlighted in dedicated evening poster sessions.

Topics of the conference include:

- Chemistry for pharmaceuticals (new synthetic methods, process chemistry)
- Chemical biology and chemogenomics
- Natural products in drug discovery
- New drug targets (endogenous substances; receptors, enzymes, channels; glycoproteins; genomic pharmacology)
- ADME/Tox. (drug metabolism and toxicology, drug delivery, medicinal bioengineering, biomaterials)
- New methods for drug discovery (analytical & physico-pharmaceutical chemistry; high-throughput medicinal & combinatorial advances; lead identification & optimization)

- Predictive in silico methods (bioinformatics, structural biology for drug development, complex systems approaches, cheminformatics and QSAR, computational chemistry)
- Protein-protein interactions
- Reversal of multi-drug resistance
- Biomarkers in HPS through clinical development
- The role and significance of preclinical studies in drug development
- Pharmaceutical analysis for drug development
